What a disappointment!By Patricia LaCervaThis book gives new meaning to the expression "false advertising." Most of the homes run between 1800 and 2100 sq. ft.(hardly "small"), and there are very, very few homes in the 1200 sq. ft. range. should either drop this book from its list altogether or include a disclaimer.

Heres a bold new collection proving that good things continue to come in small packages! In less than 2,500 square feet, each plan works hard to create a sense of place with a measure of imagination-whatever your familys lifestyle. Section headings suggest pattern of live. Youll find plans for versatile starter homes, chic homes for moving up, distinctive homes for couples, choice homes for growing families, affordable estate design, smart empty-nester ideas and hardworking vacation homes. Fully one third of the designers as new to this edition. Complete construction blueprints are available separately.
