Five StarsBy Anne WestlakeI love this book. I want to build myself one.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. HUGE DISAPPOINTMENTBy Michele CrawfordIn all the years I've bought books this is the most disappointing one ever! The photography is poor, the hideaways/huts are all junky looking and I've not seen one idea that I would be happy using. Sorry, but true. Been buying books for over 50 years.

Gill Heriz presents another inspirational collection of women's sheds and other small spaces In A Womans Huts and Hideaways Gill Heriz presents an inspirational collection of stunning small spaces. Each place has its own story, a reason for being, whether its somewhere to escape, to create, to work, or just a place to be. By the Waterside, Ivy has built a mud hut near the River Willamett in Portland, Oregon a place to inspire and educate and share with her community. In the Countryside Monicas Cabin on the Hill is a writing retreat and provides a place for women who need time away from busy lives. A purpose-built shed in an Urban garden serves as studio for illustrator and artist, Martha. Hidden away, in an enchanting wilderness in Suffolk, UK, is Janet and Sues Secret Garden. Here, there are three sheds: an old summerhouse full of light; a hide nestled in the bushes for watching the local wildlife; and a renovated wagon used as a base for recording their wildlife observations. From yurts to Airstreams, beach huts to bothies, the huts and hideaways have one thing in common they are all inspirational spaces created by women, for women.

About the Author Gill Heriz is an artist and writer who was once an interior designer, and has a passion for architecture and design. She is also self-confessedly nosy, and loves nothing more than exploring other peoples houses, huts and hideaways. Her interest in small spaces designed by women was first sparked by some fine examples in her local area, and now extends across the world. Gills first book, A Womans Shed (published by CICO Books), won the Gold in Home Garden at the 2014 Foreword s IndieFab awards. Gill lives in Suffolk, UK.
