Anatxu Zabalbeascoa : Architect's Office before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Architect's Office:

7 of 7 people found the following review helpful. True love of architecture By Darius Osteika Every architect always try to meet customers requirements and sometimes it is difficult to realize ideas. In this book I saw warm houses designed of world's greatest modern architects for their offices. They did it in best way they feel. It is like declaration of feelings to their profesion and best example of the way they do it.
