Fun to see how different people frame and display the art they own. Plus, the residences pictured are some of the most interesting I've seen in a while. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Kimball Most interesting look inside very contemporary artists' homes--not what I expected to find, as most of the names were not that familiar to me and the art shown was what they had bartered for mostly and not what they themselves had painted, which makes more sense, actually. I would buy it again just for the education. 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Beautifully done. I've ordered my first dozen for holiday ... By LGH This book will intrigue art lovers, design buffs and anyone else who enjoys perceptive prose about fascinating people. Beautifully done. I've ordered my first dozen for holiday gifts already.

Artists Living with Art invites readers into the homes and personal art collections of some of the world's most renowned contemporary artists, including Cindy Sherman, Helen and Brice Marden, Chuck Close, Rachel Feinstein and John Currin, Glenn Ligon, and Pat Steir. Here readers will find beautifully renovated lofts in SoHo, 19th-century Brooklyn brownstones, and a restored farmhouse in the Hudson River Valley, all filled with cherished artworks as well as objects, textiles, and ceramics set on display in artful and creative ways. Photographed by Oberto Gili, these gorgeous interiors will inspire readers to rethink the display of their own art and treasured possessions, whether its a perfectly placed painting or rocks found on a beach.

Tantalizingly voyeuristic.
