Patricia Cleveland-Peck : Auriculas Through the Ages: Bear's Ears, Ricklers and Painted Ladies before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Auriculas Through the Ages: Bear's Ears, Ricklers and Painted Ladies:

In this unique book established garden writer Patricia Cleveland-Peck tells the story of the auricula's journey from its native Alpine habitat into the gardens of Europe and beyond. She introduces the reader to some of the interesting characters who felt passionately about the auricula and discovers the important social role it played as it was transformed by skilled florists from the simple Bear's Ear to one of today's most refined and exquisite cultivars.

"Patricia Cleveland-Peck's energetic and revealing investigation makes for an informative page-turning experience that no lover of these highly desirable plants will want to miss." David Wheeler, editor, Hortus
