The rooms shown are so overdone and so overstuffed as to make one feel claustrophobic just looking at the photos. Further, the whole book seemed like an elaborate advertisement for Ms. Chance's store and tour business. I realize that individual taste is subjective, and many of the items in the book might be beautiful in it's own right, but the beauty is diminished by the hoarding and come off as kitschy and tacky. The fact that so many of the items are religious relics adds an even stranger twist to the mishmash. The only pages I enjoyed were the photos of beautiful Italy itself.0 of 1 people found the following review helpful. A glimpse into the King and Queen's life/castle"By Merrilee LuckI received my copy today and I've already gone through it... TWICE!!!! Wonderful pictures of a beautiful woman's home and family, as well as breathtaking pictures of Italy!!! Thank you so much, for sharing your home and words of wisdom with us, Stephanie! I love that your book starts off with a profound reminder... "To make things happen, I truly believe you must act, take a step of faith, because faith without works is dead."We should all live by this!!!!2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Prepare yourself to be wowed!By Ann DamronAfter reading about Stephanie's tours online and her Mamma Mia book, my husband and I FINALLY booked the trip to southern Italy for Sept/Oct 2015. It was truly magical! While we were there, her latest book Beautiful Seductions arrived and my husband and I couldn't wait to get a copy. It's a beautiful coffee table book with excellent quality photographs of Stephanie's tours, her beautiful home, her aptly named business (Decorate

Ornate) and her family. I took my copy of Beautiful Seductions to work with me and my co-workers thought that Stephanie's "Prayer Room" was a museum! My husband is convinced that the holy grail is in there somewhere! I'm glad we booked the trip before her business explodes once everyone reads this book. We should all learn to make our own homes our castles and surround ourselves with the things we love. If you don't gasp when you see these photos, you have no pulse!

Since opening the doors of Decorate Ornate, everyone wants to know Stephanie Chance's secrets. They ask how she transforms her home into a magical wonderland and still finds time to literally fill-up her Aladdin's cave-of-a-shop, which resembles a treasure chest, filled with exotic castle doors to gorgeous home decor from all over Europe, and, too, jet back and forth to Europe, two and three times per year. Stephanie Chance takes us into her home for many Holiday Extravanzas throughout the year, along with her adventurous treasure hunts in Italy.
