Five StarsBy shirley cokerVery good book

Small enough to take to the garden center or nursery, this book contains all the gardening information you need to decide which plants to select and how to care for them in your regional garden

About the Author DR. SUE HAMILTON is an associate professor in the Plant Sciences Department at the University of Tennessee. She is the director of the University of Tennessee Gardens, where over 2000 different cultivars of trees, shrubs, annuals, perennials and herbs are evaluated each year for landscape performance in the southeastern region of the United States. Dr. Sue has also written numerous gardening articles for various magazines and is a cohost of the weekly gardening talk-radio show The Garden Girls. She is an avid gardener and enjoys practicing what she teaches. LAURA PETERS is a certified master gardener with more than 16 years of experience as a retail gardening consultant. She has researched and written 19 gardening books to date. Her practical knowledge of contemporary plant varieties and gardening products covers almost every aspect of the horticulture industry. Her areas of interest include roses, alpiners and exotic perennials, as well as Japanese and indoor gardening.
