From Bulfinch Pr : Between the Apple-Blossom the Water: Women Writing About Gardens before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Between the Apple-Blossom the Water: Women Writing About Gardens:

Taken from gardening books, novels and poems by women published between 1860 and 1935, this book reveals a passion for gardening. There is practical advice from gardeners such as Gertrude Jekyll, and passages by writers and poets such as George Eliot, Vita Sackville-West and Virginia Woolf.
