From Brand: Texas Review Press : Cabin Fever: The Roberts-Farris Cabin before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Cabin Fever: The Roberts-Farris Cabin:

This is a hilarious account of a summer spent by college students and their professor saving a cabin for posterity. The book also includes articles contributed by students on the history of the area and the family. The Roberts-Farris Cabin was built around 1840 for Allen Roberts, step-son of one of Walker county's original settlers, Hezekiah Farris. In 2001 Maggie Farris Parker donated the cabin to the City of Huntsville, and it was rescued and moved to the downtown square by students from Sam Houston State University with the help of Museum Curator Mac Woodward and inmates from the prison. The cabin is currently in use as a shop to sell local hand-crafted items.

About the AuthorDr. Ana Carolina Castillo Crimm is a retired Professor of History from Sam Houston State University. Although she still sits on the Main Street Cabin Board to support the cabin, she is currently at work on several historical novels relating to Spanish Texas in the 1770s. She still lives in Huntsville with her husband.
