John Galbally, Eileen Galbally : Carnations and Pinks for Garden and Greenhouse: Their True History and Complete Cultivation before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Carnations and Pinks for Garden and Greenhouse: Their True History and Complete Cultivation:

These popular plants bred from various species of the genus Dianthus have long been garden favorites. The late John Galbally, together with his wife, Eileen, devoted more than 50 years to growing and hybridizing new cultivars, and this book represents the summation of that experience.
