

Chicago Spaces: Inspiring Interiors from the Editors of Chicago Home + Garden Magazine

Jan Parr

DOC | *audiobook | ebooks | Download PDF | ePub

DOWNLOAD

+

READ ONLINE

#1362990 in Books Agate Surrey 2011-10-11 Original language: English PDF # 1 1.00 x 9.60 x 11.30, 3.20
#File Name: 1572841206210 pages | File size: 74.Mb

Jan Parr : Chicago Spaces: Inspiring Interiors from the Editors of Chicago Home + Garden Magazine before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Chicago Spaces: Inspiring Interiors from the Editors of Chicago Home + Garden Magazine:

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Very well done By florence I love this book. Leaving in Chicago, I am probably a little biased, especially when I have seen in person some of the interiors pictured in the book. Nevertheless, it is an inspiring book, well made, with beautiful interiors and pictures. It is organized in sections, each section being a type of room. It features both traditional and contemporary interiors, and "in between" eclectic styles. The short comments for each picture are pertinent and interesting, just long enough to bring information without getting boring to read. A great addition to my coffee table books. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. great coffee table book By This Chick Reads Great coffee table book, and a fun look inside some interesting spaces in Chicago. Almost wish I could tour them in person! 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Four Stars By santiago the book's images are excellent and it provides good ideas that are pretty conventional

With big names such as Nate Berkus and Alessandra Branca putting Chicago on the national design map, and with lesser-known (but no less talented) pros working their magic from the Gold Coast to the North Shore, Chicago teems with beautiful homes. This gorgeous coffee table book not only shows these dwellings in all their splendor but also tells the stories of how they came to be. Compiled by the editors of Chicago Home + Garden magazine, Chicago Spaces is divided into two parts. The first features homes in their entirety, while the second focuses on specific rooms: dining rooms, living rooms, bedrooms, kitchens, baths, dens, foyers, and childrens rooms. Readers learn how these spaces came together and find tips for making changes in their own homes, as well as a directory of the areas best furniture and accessories shops. Chicago Spaces shows readers smart ways to turn their homes into comfortable, stylish oases.

"The Midwest does indeed have style. And this book, full of the amazing interiors that live in this city, is proof of that." Nate Berkus, host of The Nate Berkus Show, New York Times best-selling author and regular contributor to The Oprah Winfrey Show "Mr. Berkus is right; the spaces are an amazing resource for stylish rooms with a mix of vintage, antiques and contemporary pieces." HGTV "Without doubt, Parr accomplished her mission of positioning Chicago as a city with diversified tastes in architecture and interior decoration." Erika Ward, of The Huffington Post "The talented team at Chicago Home mag, led by editor Jan Parr, have a new coffee table book coming out soon. It's one that, according to Parr, 'puts to rest once and for all the notion that Chicago's design sensibility is predictably conservative and safe.'" Apartment Therapy "The pages are decorated with clear, crisp, colourful images from every corner of homes in Chicago. The photos are big and bold taking up most of the page space, drawing the readers eyes into the smallest of details...With the range of dcor dimensions, you are sure to find something ideal for your own home." Samira Rehman, YYZ Living "It's always nice to see inside the beautiful homes around your city - how people can design similar spaces in such drastically different ways...All essentials for any design aficionado's coffee table." Alaina Kaczmarek, Live Creating Yourself "The book shows readers just what Chicago interior design has to offer and provides beautiful insights and inspiration for anyone who wants to love the space in which they live." Cheryl Dangel Cullen, Examiner.com "An inspiring book for your coffee table." Sarah Klassen, Haute Design