A definite 'must' for anyone interested in architecture By Robin Prater Dr. Dowling has managed the unusual feat of producing a book that will be of interest to a wide ranging audience, from those with a newly awakened awareness of architecture to long time aficionados. The essays add depth and insight into the subject while the photographs and illustrations stun the eye with their beauty. The Classical architecture of Greece, Ancient Rome, and the Renaissance is linked to current Classicism. The result is a reassurance that the beauty of Classical architecture has not been lost in the past but is being newly recreated and redefined across the world today. 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. A very welcome addition to the collection By Porter This book blew me away. The collection of photo and accompanying text are excellent, comprehensive and amazing. The printing is also excellent. Excellent publication By Paul T. Mcconnell Having recently purchased several related books on the subject of architecture and architectural interiors I can say this purchase has exceeded all expectations. Much better than the recent Allan Greenberg publication although of a similar style. Very glad to have this book in my collection.

A fresh perspective on the work of the most important figures of classical design from the seventeenth century to the present. Classical design employs a rich language developed across twenty-five centuries and many cultures. It is a language of details understood worldwide, with its powerful vocabulary of subtle nuance and inflection. Classical Interiors: Historical and Contemporary, a spectacular presentation of the myriad varieties of classical forms, demonstrates the enduring lessons of traditional interiors for designers and architects today. Extensively illustrated essays devoted to the development of classical design, from its ancient sources through its revivals from the seventeenth century to the present day, are written by noted historians David Watkin and Carol A. Hrvol Flores and architect and designer Richard Sammons. Portfolios of contemporary projects present the award-winning work of Juan Pablo Molyneux, Studio Peregalli, Quinlan Francis Terry, Fairfax Sammons, Gil Schafer, Historical Concepts, Ferguson Shamamian, Allan Greenberg, Robert A. M. Stern, and many others. Classical Interiors: Historical and Contemporary is the authoritative survey of the best of classical design.

This authoritative survey on the best in classical design features the award-winning portfolios of international experts in the genre, along with extensively illustrated essays by noted historians who reflect on classicism from its ancient beginnings and revivals to present day. ~Atlanta Homes Lifestyles
